"In its inventive range, its playful engagement and tantalizing mystery, What Casanova Told Me is breathtaking, a tour de force that detonates echoes of the past within the present... Utterly seductive... The lesson learned here is simple: Leave home, fall in love and believe in the accidents of pleasure and freedom." The Globe & Mail
